

UNIVERSITY OF COLOMBO, SRI LANKA

FACULTY OF MANAGEMENT AND FINANCE

Bachelor of Business Administration (Level II, Semester VI) Examination - December 2017

INB 2213 – International Relations

Two (02) Hours

Answer any Four (04) questions.

1.
 - i. Differentiate between a 'state' and a 'nation'.
(10 Marks)
 - ii. Discuss how the Realist's approach to security is different from the Liberalist's approach to security.
(15 Marks)
(Total: 25 marks)

2.
 - i. Describe the importance of the Westphalian Treaty for international relations.
(10 Marks)
 - ii. Discuss how the rise in global civil society has influenced global governance.
(15 Marks)
(Total: 25 marks)

3.
 - i. Describe how a Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) is different from an Intergovernmental Organization.
(10 Marks)
 - ii. Differentiate between High Politics and Low politics and identify their importance in managing international relations.
(15 Marks)
(Total: 25 marks)

4. i. Briefly describe two (02) reasons why Radicalism may not be identified as an approach in International Relations.

(10 Marks)

ii. Using your understanding of Radicalism, explain the relevance of 'Base' and the 'Superstructure' in international relations.

(15 Marks)

(Total: 25 marks)

5. i. Briefly describe the importance of Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD) in international relations.

(10 Marks)

ii. Discuss how rise in significance of the Multinational Enterprises (MNEs) has influenced international relations.

(15 Marks)

(Total: 25 marks)

6. i. Foreign Policy Analysis (FPA) assumes the state to be a social institution which exists in two (02) environments. Briefly describe each of these two environments.

(09 Marks)

ii. Select any two (02) of the following concepts/events and discuss their relevance to international relations.

- a) Globalization
- b) Industrial Revolution
- c) Balance of Power
- d) Economic Liberalism
- e) Triangular Diplomatic Relations

(16 Marks)

(Total: 25 marks)